LOCATION

Helen DeVos Children's Hospital (HDVCH) is located within Spectrum Health Butterworth Hospital in Grand Rapids, Michigan. The new Helen DeVos Children's Hospital will open in 2011 on the corner of Bostwick Avenue and Michigan Street in Grand Rapids. It will feature 14 floors, 206 beds and 440,000 square feet dedicated to the care of children. Helen DeVos Children's Hospital serves a 37-county region stretching from the Indiana border to the Upper Peninsula, to Lansing and beyond.

LIFESTYLE

Located on the banks of the Grand River, Grand Rapids combines sophisticated charm with Midwestern friendliness. Known for being safe and clean, it's a "walking" city. The downtown features a new convention center and excellent hotels, restaurants, and relaxation. In addition to being close to spectacular Lake Michigan beaches and beach towns, Grand Rapids is known for its art and cultural events, plays, museums, and a world-class botanical garden.

HOSPITAL

Helen DeVos Children's Hospital has developed a wide range of clinical specialty programs achieving high volumes, outstanding outcomes and recognition in the region, state and nation. HDVCH is a vital resource to the 37 Michigan counties it serves and is dedicated to providing exceptional health care to every child in need, regardless of ability to pay.

Serving infants, children and adolescents, Helen DeVos Children's Hospital has more than 150 physicians offering treatment in 40 pediatric specialties.
